

STANDING UP FOR CONSUMERS & COMMUNITIES

A CAREER ON THE PLAINTIFF'S SIDE

Ben Wolf '04

Fei-Lu Qian '03

Dan Petroskey '03

Our panelists, featuring Albany Law alumni, will discuss what plaintiff-side practice really looks like day to day, how it differs from common law school expectations, and how this work helps individuals and communities who might not otherwise have access to legal representation. The conversation will also cover the legal and interpersonal skills that matter most, common misconceptions about plaintiff-side work, and practical advice on courses, clinics, and experiences for students interested in this path.
